

I would not support any changes to the No Call regulations. We are sick of calles that are not solicited and not wanted, it is our phone and our time that is being wasted by these calls.